

Here's what some participants have to say about past ASJ Faculty Workshops at The Lovett School:

"Qualified presenters who communicated well"

"Great people, great atmosphere"

"Well planned, with strong facilities and enthusiastic organizers"

"Well organized – nice blend of lectures, media, and opportunity to interact with teachers"

"Highly informative! The sessions were designed with advanced content in mind and really allowed us to learn."

"The course was intellectually stimulating: a content-based approach rather than one based on methods (although I did get some good ideas on methodology, too!)."

"The keynote address was grounded in the idea behind this workshop and also beautifully articulated through music and literature."

"Enthusiastic and knowledgeable leaders"

"Well organized and balanced in terms of presentation topics and useful materials"

"Engaging speakers, range of topics, collegial atmosphere, solicitous staff"

"The Institute definitely contributed to an increased level of enthusiasm for next school year. It's always most enlightening to talk to colleagues in the field who can attest to the effectiveness of tried and true strategies."

"Great opportunity to investigate, network, and learn"

"One of the best workshops I have ever attended! The information was fresh and gave us an opportunity to learn!"

"It inspires – it motivates – it makes you realize there are others who think similarly"

"This is the first conference I've attended where I've been told twice to have the students sing. I love this wide-open approach to approaches to learning."
